German MedTech Day on May 25, 2020

A total of around 1,000 to 1,200 international participants are expected.
More at: www.themedtechforum.eu

The MedTech Forum 2020 will start with a “German MedTech Day” on Monday, 25 May 2020:
Register here: www.bvmed.de/german-medtech-day

Conference language:  German with simultaneous translation into English

Program:

13:30  Check-in at the bcc Berlin Congress Center

14:30  Welcome address
Dr. Meinrad Lugan
Chairman of the Board, BVMed – German Medical Technology Association

14:45  Speech
Federal Minister of Health Jens Spahn on the EU-MDR and outlook for the German EU Council Presidency

15:30  Discussion round 1 on the challenges for the industry
Thomas Müller, Head of Department Drugs & Medical Devices, Federal Ministry of Health
Marc D. Michel, CEO Peter Brehm and Vice Chairman of the Board, BVMed
Dr. Bassil Akra, Vice President Strategic Business Development, Global Medical Health Services (MHS), TÜV SÜD Product Service GmbH

Presentation: Lisa Braun, healthcare journalist

16:00  Coffee break

16:30  Lecture
Parliamentary State Secretary Christian Hirte, Federal Ministry of Economics (BMWi), on the importance of the health industry / MedTech Germany

16:50  Impulse
Prof. Dr. Dennis A. Ostwald, WifOR Institute
on the health economic total account

Discussion round 2 on the importance of the industrial health sector
Prof. Dr. Dennis A. Ostwald, WifOR Institute
on the health economic total account
Dr. Meinrad Lugan, BVMed Chairman of the Board
Sylvia Theis, Country Manager Medtronic Germany

17:25  Closing remarks
Dr. Marc-Pierre Möll
CEO BVMed
Serge Bernasconi
CEO MedTech Europe

17:30  End of lectures

18:00  MedTech Forum Opening Reception

Register now:
www.bvmed.de/german-medtech-day